

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing this email to introduce the Asia Pacific Journal of Pediatrics and Child Health (APJPCH), the official e-journal of Asia Pacific Pediatric Association (APPA), and to invite you to submit your manuscripts for our upcoming issues. Our March 2020, issue has been published and could be a good read during this period of partial lock down. I would appreciate your comments and suggestion to improve quality of our journal.

Our next issue is scheduled for publication in June, 2020.

Journal Name: Asia Pacific Journal of Pediatrics and Child Health

Type: Online

Contact us: admin@apjpch.com

Website: www.apjpch.com

ISSN Number: 2637-1308

Periodicity: Quarterly (March-June-September-December)

The journal publishes a wide range of articles and case reports on regional issues of Pediatrics and Child Health. We would appreciate your support to share this information with your colleagues and members of your societies and encourage them to submit their works for a wider readership.

The editorial team remains active to review and publish your submissions concerning the spread or treatment of COVID 19 in pediatric population. We wish our readership, colleagues and their loved one, good health in these challenging times and hope and pray that this is over soon without causing much harm to our communities.

Yours sincerely,

Prof M Ashraf Sultan

Editor in Chief
